ALSA Protest Flow Chart

Protest Intent Form & ALSA Protest sent to Protest Committee Chairman.

Protest Committee Chairman acknowledges Receipt to Sender.

Forward to Protest Committee to determine Valid or not Valid

Protest Valid

Protest Not Valid

Advise Committee Liaison & ALSA President of Protest

Notify Protester that protest is not valid.

Chairman investigates protest. Send protest to alleged violators for response. Get statements from witnesses.

Forward complete documentation to Committee to review and recommend discipline if protest is upheld.

Committee Chair acquires recommendations from Committee in a maximum of 30 days.

Chair may discuss/deliberate with committee members after reports are received in order to reach a consensus.

Committee Chair recaps recommendations.

Sends all records to Liaison & Board of Directors.

Protester is advised of protest status. If the protest is upheld, the Board of Directors will decide on action to be taken or discipline.

Board will advise Chairman of recommendations and penalties. Chair will advise Protester, Accused, and Committee of results by letter. If protest is upheld, the Board will send details & disciplinary decisions to Showring for publication in the next issue.